

WANNA MAKE A MILLION?

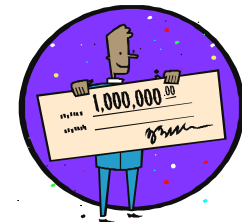

DEGREE EARNED →	DROPOUT	HS OR GED	2-YEAR COLLEGE	4- YEAR COLLEGE	6 OR MORE YEARS OF COLLEGE
Average WEEKLY income	$462	$670	$766	$1,098	$1,319	$1,815	$2,329
Average ANNUAL income	$24,004	$34,814	$39,817	$57,107	$68,611	$94,376	$121,101
WORKING LIFE (ages 25-64)	$960,160	$1,392,560	$1,592,680	$2,284,280	$2,744,440	$3,775,040	$4,844,040

DATA: U.S. Census Bureau, Current Population Survey, 2006 Annual Social & Economic Supplement. Figures based on 2005 work experience.

By the way, we are not saying that money is everything, or even the most important thing. With or without higher education, the truly important things remain the same : Family and friends, work and kindness, strong values... all are worth more than money can buy. Still, there's a lot to be said for a good education. The knowledge and skills that come with college can serve you well all your life--- and so can the bigger bucks.

COLLEGE  PAYS

From Maximizing Adolescent Academic eXcellence (The MAAX) Program

<http://www.TheMaax.org>